[COMMUNICATED.]
Knights of Pythias.

The Supreme Lodge, Knights of Pythias, completed their annual session in New York city on Saturday, 13th instant, after five days arduous labor in legislating for the best interests of the Order. The following delegates were present from the District of Columbia: Supreme Scribe Clarence M. Barton, Supreme Lodge Steward Harry Kronheimer, Supreme Representatives Edward Dunn, Hugh G. Divine, John G. Dudley, and J. K. N. Curtin, and Past Grand Chancellor Joseph S. Martin.

The delegates from the sixteen Grand Lodges composing the Supreme Lodge were quartered during their stay at the Union Place and the Metropolitan Hotels, and were shown every attention by the knights of New York.

The newly elected Supreme Lodge officers were addressed and duly installed by the Supreme Chancellor. The officers were equally distributed with the Eastern, Western, and Middle State delegates, and the incumbents are men of recognized ability in the Order.

The vexed question of convalesces, or "would-be higher degrees," was definitely settled by the adoption of an amendment to the ritual of the Order. The secret work of the Order was exemplified and made uniform.

Grand Lodges were given power to hold annual sessions only in their various jurisdictions if they so elect.

The following resolution, offered by Hugh Latham, of Virginia, was adopted:

Resolved, That the Committee on Laws and Supervision be empowered to suggest such laws at the next annual session in Philadelphia as their judgment may prompt, and any member of the Supreme Lodge shall have the privilege to submit amendments to said committee for their consideration.

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to take charge of the lectures of the several degrees, improve and enlarge the same, and report at the next session of this Supreme Lodge.

Past Chancellor A. R. Brown, of Louisville, Kentucky, was made a Past Grand Chancellor for distinguished services rendered the Order in that State.

A resolution looking to the abolishment of the apron regalia of the Order was defeated.

The question of translating the ritual of the order into the Bohemian, Spanish, and French languages was referred to the Supreme Chancellor, with power to employ competent members of the Order to do so.

A resolution was adopted to enable the Supreme Chancellor to establish the Order in Germany and England during the coming year.

Deputy Grand Chancellors Joseph Dowdall, of Ohio; James L. Enos and B. F. Pinkerton, of Iowa; Henry Simons, of Wyoming Territory, and Sanford B. Palmer, of Georgia, were created Past Grand Chancellors.

A committee of three was appointed to prepare and present to the Supreme Lodge at its next session, designs for a flag for the Order, to be used on public and private occasions.

Representatives Linton, of Pennsylvania; Hayes, of Delaware, and Levy, of New York, were appointed a committee to report an amendment to the Supreme Lodge constitution making the Supreme Lodge a representative body.

Upon the proposition to extend the time of suspension for non-payment of dues from six to twelve months, the Supreme Lodge decided that each Grand Lodge had the power to determine said question.

The request of the Grand Lodge, District of Columbia, to amend their laws was referred back to said Grand Lodge, with instructions that they have power to do so.

The proposition to change the quorum for Lodges from "nine" to "seven" was negative.

The request of Hermione Lodge, No. 12, of Georgetown, D. C., to make Fred. D. Stuart a Past Chancellor, which was referred to the Supreme Lodge by the Grand Lodge, District of Columbia, was agreed to.

The following decision was ratified: No Grand Lodge has power to levy an assessment upon any of its members.

The following resolution was adopted:
That all the laws, except those of general application relating to qualification of membership, quorum, regalia, and mode of balloting for members, be referred to their respective Grand Lodges.

The thanks of the Supreme Lodge were tendered to Supreme Chancellor Samuel Read, for the ability and energy displayed by him during the past year.

Supreme Chancellor Read appointed the committees for the ensuing two years.
Hugh Latham, Alexandria, is the committee of Appeals and Greivances.

AN INDIAN TROPHY.—Grace Greenwood was an letter from Washington to the New York Tribune says:—

"A few weeks ago while on a visit to the Land Office, I was shown by Mr. Wilson, the accomplished Commissioner, a singular relic of a late fight on the plains. It was a garment taken from an Indian chief after death. A shirt of buckskin, wide without the usual ornamentation of beads and porcupine quills, yet graced with something quite novel in the decorative way—a full, long fringe, formed of the hair of white women and children. It was a gloriously adorned—indeed the entire garment was a very unpleasant thing to inspect. The only point in it on which the eye could rest without horror or pity was a small round hole, beneath which the raging heart of a human wild beast came out day to a full stop."
